Customer Problem Statement Template

The following statement follows the customer point-of-view structure from the provided template: I am (Customer), I'm trying to, But, Because, Which makes me feel.

Problem Statement (PS)	FitBuddy Customer Problem Statement
I am (Customer)	A person who wants to improve fitness and needs a simple, personalized fitness plan.
I'm trying to	Create and follow a workout routine that matches my fitness goal, fitness level, available time, and preferences.
But	I find it difficult to choose suitable exercises and organize a consistent daily workout plan on my own.
Because	Generic fitness plans may not be personalized to my needs, schedule, available equipment, or changing progress.
Which makes me feel	Confused about what exercises to do, less confident about my routine, and less motivated to maintain consistency.

Final Problem Statement

I am a person who wants to improve my fitness. I'm trying to create and follow a workout routine that matches my goals, fitness level, available time, and preferences. But I find it difficult to choose suitable exercises and organize a consistent daily plan because generic fitness plans may not be personalized to my needs or changing progress. This makes me feel confused, less confident, and less motivated to maintain a consistent fitness routine.
